For Immediate Release
September 28, 2009

North Wildwood, New Jersey – County Prosecutor Robert L. Taylor and North Wildwood Chief of Police Robert Matteucci are requesting the public's assistance in identifying a vehicle involved in a hit and run accident which occurred on Sunday, September 27, 2009, at approximately 1:29am, in the City of North Wildwood. The victim, Angela M. Bishop, 37 years of age of Sicklerville, New Jersey, was crossing the intersection located at 4th and New York Avenues in North Wildwood. According to a witness, Ms. Bishop was struck by a large, black, SUV with a chrome grill and chrome wheels. The witness further stated that all of the windows were tinted with the exception of the windshield and front driver and passenger side windows. After the collision, the suspect vehicle continued to travel south on New York Avenue and then turned east on 5th Avenue.

The vehicle would have suffered front-end damage, specifically to the hood and grill as well as possibly the driver's side headlight assembly.

Ms. Bishop was transported by North Wildwood Rescue Squad to the AtlantiCare Regional Medical Center located in Atlantic City. Ms. Bishop is listed in critical, but stable condition.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact the Cape May County Prosecutor's Office at (609) 465-1135 or the North Wildwood Police Department at (609) 522-2411.
