Cape May Court House, New Jersey - Cape May County Prosecutor Robert L. Taylor and Wildwood Police Chief Steven Long announce the on-going investigation into the May 29, 2011 aggravated assault of local resident, Oleg Kostyucheck.

On May 29th at approximately 4:30am, Wildwood Police Patrol Officers responded to a report of a “man down” in the parking lot of the McDonald’s restaurant at 4900 Park Boulevard in Wildwood. Upon the officers’ arrival, they located 31 year old Oleg Kostyucheck lying in the parking lot, unresponsive. The victim was transported to Cape Regional Medical Center where it was determined that he had suffered a head injury. Kostyucheck was then transported to Atlantic City Medical Center where he remains hospitalized.

The subsequent investigation conducted by the Cape May County Prosecutor’s Office and the Wildwood Police Department Detective Division revealed that Kostyucheck was assaulted by one of a group of four black males in the McDonald’s parking lot. Eyewitnesses to the assault describe the assailant as a young black male, wearing a light colored shirt whose hair is worn in dreadlocks. The unknown assailant was in the company of three other individuals who were operating a dark colored, 4-door sedan with distinctive chrome wheel rims. To date, attempts to identify the assailant and his associates have been unsuccessful.

The Cape May County Prosecutor's Office and the Wildwood Police Department are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the individuals involved in this crime. The attached photograph is of two of the four persons involved. Police are asking for your help in identifying the black male with dreadlocks and the larger black male with the baseball hat.
